Name

Formatted: Font: 12 pt, Font color: Black

Section 1.1 The name of this organization shall be San Diego Sail and Power Squadron, Inc. constituting a squadron and unit of United States Power Squadrons, a nonprofit organization.

Nonprofit Organization

Section 1.2 This is a nonprofit organization organized under the laws of the state of California. The bylaws of United States Power Squadrons and any rules and regulations made pursuant thereto, not inconsistent with federal, state or local laws, shall take precedence over those of this squadron, and all provisions thereof affecting the conduct of the affairs of this squadron shall prevail.

Human Rights Laws

Section 1.3 The squadron and its members shall at all times observe all federal, state and local human rights laws, regulations and ordinances applicable to any squadron activity, procedure or practice. No person may be refused membership, denied office, or be prevented from participating in any activity because of any fact or circumstance which would identify that person as one of a protected class of individuals under the human rights laws, regulations or ordinances of any governmental jurisdiction where the person resides or in which the squadron conducts business.

ARTICLE II

Objects

Section 2.1 The objects of San Diego Sail and Power Squadron, Inc. shall be:

2.1.1 To selectively associate congenial persons of good character having a common love and appreciation of yachting as a nationwide fraternity of boatmen;

2.1.2 To encourage and promote yachting, power and sail, and to provide through local squadrons and otherwise a practical means to foster fraternal and social relationships among persons interested in yachting;

2.1.3 To encourage and promote a high amateur standard of skill in the handling and navigation of yachts, power and sail; to encourage and promote the study of the science and art of navigation, seamanship and small boat handling; to develop and promote instructional programs for the benefit of members; and to stimulate members to increase their knowledge of and skill in yachting through instruction, self-education, and participation in marine sports activities and competitions;

2.1.4 To encourage its members to abide by recognized yachting traditions, customs and etiquette; and

2.1.5 To render, and encourage its members to render, such altruistic, patriotic or other civic service as it may from time to time determine or elect.

Word and Term Meaning

Section 2.2 As used herein, unless the context clearly indicates otherwise, the term

2.2.1 USPS® means United States Power Squadrons.

2.2.2 District means a district of USPS.

2.2.3 Squadron means this squadron.

2.2.4 Members, officers, committees, delegates and subjects treated generally refer to and mean those of this squadron.

prospective member shall be expected to be able and willing to contribute energy and skill to the objects of this squadron and USPS.

Section 3.2 There shall be the following classes of membership:

active members, family members, apprentice members,
associate members and honorary members.

Formatted: Font: 12 pt, Bold, Font color: Black

Section 3.3 The active members of this squadron shall consist of persons who (1) are willing and able to contribute time, energy and skills to the objectives of this squadron (2) meet the qualifications for active membership approved by the Operating Committee and (3) are at least 18 years of age and have been admitted to membership as herein provided.

Deleted: Associate membership in the squadron may be offered in accordance with the provisions of Section 3.6.¶

Deleted: The active members of this squadron shall consist of persons who meet membership qualifications set forth by the policy and authority of USPS and who are admitted to membership as herein provided.

Section 3.4 An active member who has been awarded twenty-five (25) merit marks shall become a life member. Life members shall be exempt from further payment of squadron dues and shall receive such other exemptions in this squadron as are appropriate to match those granted by USPS.

Section 3.5 Family members of this squadron may be admitted in the same manner as active members. Persons eligible to be admitted as family members shall consist of persons related to an active member by blood, legal adoption or marriage and who reside with or are dependents of such active member. Family members shall enjoy only such privileges as are in accordance with USPS policy.

Deleted: the policy and authority of USPS.

Section 3.5.1 Upon termination of membership of an active member, the family membership dependent thereon shall also terminate unless a family member qualifies and elects to become an active member within the grace period established from time to time by the Governing Board.

Deleted: Upon approval of an application by a majority vote of the Executive Committee members present and voting at a duly constituted meeting of said committee, persons who: (1) do not otherwise qualify for any class of membership; (2) have passed an examination approved by the Operating Committee; and (3) have attained the age of 12, may become associated with this squadron as apprentices for a period of time not to extend beyond the end of the dues year in which they reach their 18th birthday.

Section 3.6 Apprentice members of this squadron shall be persons who have reached the age of twelve and have passed an examination approved by the USPS Operating Committee. Apprentice members shall enjoy only such privileges as are available to family members and shall pay such fees as are set forth by the policy of USPS and of this squadron. Apprentice memberships shall terminate at the end of the dues year in which the apprentice reaches his twenty-third birthday.

Section 3.7 Associate members of this squadron shall consist of active members in good standing of other squadrons of USPS or of the Canadian Power and Sail Squadrons, who have been granted associate membership by the Executive Committee. Associate members shall have all of the privileges of active members except that they shall not hold elective office in this squadron, have representation by delegates of this squadron, be entitled to represent this squadron at any USPS or district meeting, or be entitled to vote at any meeting of this squadron.

Deleted: Section 3.7 Apprentices associated with this squadron shall have only such privileges, shall be subject to such limitations and conditions, and shall pay such fees as are set forth by the policy and authority of USPS and of this squadron.¶
Section 3.8

Section 3.8 Honorary membership may be conferred by the Executive Committee, for not more than one year at a time, upon any person not a member of USPS who has made a significant contribution to safe boating or to the work of this squadron. Honorary members shall not be subject to the payment of national or local entrance fees or annual dues. Honorary members shall be selected by majority vote of the Executive committee subject to election by two thirds (2/3) vote of the members present at a general membership meeting. Honorary members shall have none of the privileges extended to other classes of members except to wear the USPS membership lapel pin.

ARTICLE VII

Dues and Entrance Fees

Section 7.1 The entrance fees and annual dues of dues-paying classes of membership shall be reviewed each year by the Executive Committee, and its recommendations for the following year shall be presented to and voted upon by the active members no later than the annual squadron meeting in January. Such fees and dues shall be as so determined provided, however, that in the event no such fees or dues are so fixed for any USPS dues year, fees and dues shall be the same as for the preceding year.

Section 7.2 The dues of this squadron shall be due and payable, in advance, at the same time as USPS dues are due and payable.

7.2.1 Associate member dues and fees, if any, shall be billed by and paid directly to this squadron.

Section 7.3 An entrance fee, in an amount recommended by the Executive Committee and approved by the active members, may be required as a prerequisite to any class of membership except honorary membership. Such entrance fee shall be paid at the time of acceptance of the individual into membership.

Section 7.4 Dues for new members are payable with their membership application. The member's anniversary date becomes the first day of the month that the membership application form is accepted. Dues for all subsequent years shall be payable annually on or before the anniversary date.

Deleted: shall be prorated on a monthly basis from the first day of the month in which the applicant signs and dates the acceptance of membership form to the end of the dues year. The initial membership year for persons joining the squadron during the last three months of the dues year shall consist of the remainder of that dues year plus the subsequent dues year, and squadron dues for this initial membership year shall be the same as the usual annual dues. Dues for any subsequent year shall be payable annually on or before the beginning of that subsequent year

Section 7.5 Non-payment of squadron dues may be excused by the Executive Committee, but nothing herein contained shall authorize the waiver of dues to USPS or of any amount intended to defray a per capita assessment of the squadron by it's district.

Deleted: of any district assessment

Section 7.6 Members of all classes of USPS membership otherwise eligible to receive instruction or examination in any course may not do so unless in good standing and not in arrears for dues or other indebtedness to this squadron or USPS.

ARTICLE VIII

Resignations, Transfers and Reinstatements

Section 8.1 Resignations, transfers and reinstatements shall be accomplished in accordance with USPS policy.

Deleted: the policy and authority of USPS

Section 8.2 Reinstatement requests from former members who have voluntarily terminated membership in this squadron shall be treated as follows:

8.2.1 Those who apply for reinstatement within two years of termination of membership shall be reinstated upon payment of (1) annual dues for the current year, (2) squadron indebtedness (if any), and (3) a reinstatement fee in an amount recommended by the Finance Committee and approved by the Governing Board (such fee will not be required of those returning to active membership from active duty in the armed forces of the United States).

8.2.2 Reinstatement requests received two or more years after termination of membership shall be reviewed as follows:

(a) Upon receipt of a request for reinstatement, the Executive Committee shall, in closed session, determine whether any committee member is against reinstatement. If there are no such members, the applicant shall be reinstated as in 8.2.1 herein.

(b) If any Executive Committee member expresses intent to vote against reinstatement, the specific grounds for such vote shall be recorded in the minutes of the ~~closed~~ session (but not divulged to non-members of the Executive Committee). At its next meeting, the Executive Committee shall, in ~~closed~~ session, vote on the question, "Shall (name) be refused reinstatement?" A two-thirds vote shall be required to refuse reinstatement; otherwise the applicant shall be reinstated as in 8.2.1 herein.

Deleted: executive

Deleted: (2/3)

(c) If reinstatement is refused, the squadron secretary shall, within five days, notify the national secretary of such refusal and the specific grounds therefor. In such case the former member shall be eligible for reinstatement in USPS as an unattached member.

ARTICLE IX

Meetings, Notices and Quorums

Section 9.1 Regular squadron business meetings shall be held in the months of January, March, May, July, September, and November. The Executive Committee may designate other times and places for such regular business meetings upon proper notice. The Executive Committee shall meet as required by Section 6.7.1 herein.

Section 9.2 If a holiday or other circumstance makes it impractical to hold any meeting as provided herein, the Executive Committee may waive such meeting or set another meeting date. The membership shall be notified accordingly.

Section 9.3 ~~The annual meeting shall be held in the month of January at such time and place as the Executive Committee may designate, at which time an election of officers and members of elective committees, including the chairmen thereof, shall be held.~~

Deleted: There shall be two (2) General (regular) membership meetings in the month of January. The first meeting,

Written notice of the annual meeting, containing a list of all active members nominated by the Nominating Committee for election to positions within this squadron, shall be sent to each active member by the secretary, in such manner as determined by the Executive Committee, at least thirty (30) days prior to such meeting.

Deleted: , shall be devoted to the election of officers, reports of outgoing officers and committee chairmen, other business as designated herein, and that may become before the assembly.

Section 9.6 Except as provided in Section 9.3, notices of all regular or special membership meetings of this squadron, shall be mailed to the last known address of each member entitled to receive such notice, at least 15 days prior to regular meetings, and at least 10 days prior to special meetings. The inclusion of a Notice of Meeting in an official squadron publication mailed the required time before such meeting will be determined to comply with the foregoing provisions.

Deleted: . Notices for regular meetings of the Executive Committee shall be mailed at least (10) days prior to the meeting. Notices for special meetings of the Executive Committee shall be mailed at least five (5) business days prior to the meeting. The inclusion of a Notice of Meeting in an official squadron publication mailed the required time before such a meeting will be deemed to comply with the foregoing provisions.

9.6.1 Electronic communications may be used for notices provided the recipient has agreed in writing to accept electronic messages in lieu of physical mail and the message is transmitted to the member's facsimile machine or last e-mail address of record on or before the applicable deadline for dispatching notice. Electronic transmission of an official squadron publication containing such notice shall be deemed to comply with this requirement provided it is transmitted in its entirety.

Nominations, Elections and Voting

Section 11.1 Candidates for elective positions to be voted upon at the annual meeting may be nominated (1) by the Nominating Committee as herein provided or (2) by petition in writing signed by at least five active members in good standing and filed with the secretary at least fifteen (15) days before the date of election.

Deleted: office

Section 11.2 The educational officer and the assistant educational officer (if any) are members of the USPS Educational Department, and shall be nominated and elected only after their qualifications have been approved by the national educational officer's designee.

Section 11.3 If vacancies exist in the properly formulated slate of nominees at the time of the election, they shall be filled by nominations from the floor duly made by active members.

Section 11.4 No active member shall be eligible for nomination without first signifying willingness and ability to serve if elected.

Section 11.5 At any election, each active member present and in good standing in this squadron shall have one vote for each office to be filled. Voting shall be in the following manner:

11.5.1 Cumulative voting is prohibited.

11.5.2 Election to an uncontested office may be effected by a supported motion and a ballot cast and recorded by the secretary.

11.5.3 Election to a contested office shall be effected by secret ballot, unsigned and cast in person. Such elections shall be determined by a judge of election and not less than three tellers, all of whom shall be appointed by the commander. The secret ballots shall be delivered to the judge of election and opened and inspected by the tellers, and the final results shall be tabulated and announced to the members before the close of the meeting.

11.5.4 Polls shall remain open for no more than one hour after the election is initiated as an order of business.

ARTICLE XII

Miscellaneous

Section 12.1 Any person collecting moneys for any activity of this squadron shall be prepared at all times to make a full and complete accounting of the same to the commander and to the Executive Committee.

Section 12.2 No member shall contract any bills in the name of this squadron unless previously authorized by the Executive Committee or by the adopted budget.

Section 12.3 When any account authorized by the Executive Committee or by the adopted budget is closed, any excess funds therein and a complete accounting shall be promptly transferred to the treasurer.

Section 12.4 No person shall take advantage of USPS membership status in order to achieve personal gain or remuneration.
